How to Pay

Your eBill is due by the payment due date published in the upper right corner. To avoid a late fee, payments must be posted by 6:00 p.m. (EST) on a payment due date. Online payment (Credit Card or eCheck) is the University at Buffalo's preferred payment method. When paying online, payments are posted to the student account in real-time. For release of service indicators (holds), please allow 24-48 hours after payment has been posted to your account.

Students can make online payment in the HUB Student Center via MyUB. International wire transfers can be initiated from there as well. From the HUB Student Center, click on Billing / Payments. In the navigation menu, click on Payment Options and then click on the View & Pay Accounts menu option.

Parents and others can make payments as an Authorized Payer. Payments can be made at the link <https://quikpayasp.com/buffalo/studentaccounts/authorized.do>. The student must first establish you as an Authorized Payer.

Methods of Payment

Credit Cards:

Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express are accepted for online payments only and are not accepted by mail, telephone, or in person. There is no service charge to pay by credit card.

Electronic Check (eCheck):

eCheck is a direct debit from your personal checking or savings account. You will need the routing number and account number from a US bank account to process an eCheck. Payments made by eCheck are offered at no charge to you.

Mail:

Paper checks, made payable to the University at Buffalo, are the only form of payment that will be accepted through the mail. To ensure proper posting, include your student identification number and allow 7 days for mailing. A postmark prior to the payment due date does not constitute the removal of a late fee.

Payment Plan:

A payment plan allows you to pay your eBill in several installments over the course of a term. If you are enrolled in a payment plan, your installment due dates differ from the normal billing process. To enroll, visit the HUB Student Center via MyUB or as an authorized payer visit <https://quikpayasp.com/buffalo/studentaccounts/authorized.do>.

Late Fee Schedule

Payment must be received by the due date to avoid a late payment fee. A late payment fee is determined by the balance on the account. Failure to receive your eBill will not be accepted as a reason to waive the late payment fee. A postmark prior to the payment due date does not constitute evidence of having paid on time. The first late fee of the term is called an administrative fee. For more information, visit our website <http://buffalo.edu/studentaccounts/payments/penalties-for-non-payment>.

Balance Due	Late Payment Fee
Balances up to $999.99	$30.00
$1000 to $1999.99	$40.00
$2000 and above	$50.00

Refunds

Student Accounts will automatically refund credit balances on your account as a result of an adjustment or overpayment of your bill. A credit balance may be a result of overpayment by yourself or any financial aid that you receive. Although it is not required, we highly recommend enrolling in Direct Deposit to receive your refund faster. For additional information, visit our website at <http://buffalo.edu/studentaccounts/refunds>.
